How to say "human rights" in Tamil—WordHippo
Human rights and humanitarian law have acquired a special significance for the Tamil people. The Tamils are a Fourth World nation - a nation without an internationally recognised state . Existing states do not readily surrender control of territory which they claim as their own - and not surprisingly, they find common cause in securing each other's territorial boundaries.

People who were previously in, or who assisted, the Tamil Tigers have alleged that the government has been continuing to torture them after the formal end of hostilities. Human Rights Watch has said that 62 cases of sexual violence have been documented since the end of the civil war, though the government says that there have only been 5. Similarly, the government asserts that these are isolated cases, while those making the allegations believe that this is a part of an organized government ...
